Existence of Attracting Periodic Orbits for King and Jarratt Iterative Methods

In this paper, we shall use King's and Jarratt's root–finding methods and present a procedure to construct polynomials in such a way that superattracting periodic orbits of any prescribed period will occur when these iterative methods are applied.

Key Words.

AMS(MOS) subject classifications.