Geometry and convergence of some third-order methods

We study the global convergence of two third-order methods by using their geometric interpretation. A comparison of these methods with the classic ones is discussed also.

Key Words. Non-linear equations, third order iterative methods, global convergence

AMS(MOS) subject classifications. 65F15, 65H05